“Affirming Mountain View’s Values and Building Community in Times of Uncertainty”

Post-election results have surfaced a sense of uncertainty in many of our Bay Area communities, including Mountain View. Recently adopting a resolution to become a Human Rights City, Mountain View prides itself on meeting the needs of a caring and diverse community, leading the region in innovation and ideas and maintaining traditional values of strong neighborhoods and citizen engagement.

The Human Relations Commission seeks to create an informational forum featuring local government officials to share the knowns about their respective policies and department resources and name the unknowns. The panelists will also take questions from the audience.
